
International pavilions for German exhibitors

There is a wide range and variety of participation opportunities. You can choose between an individual participation or you can also exhibit in one of our joint Pavilion booths. For German companies we have the German Pavilion: See for yourself!

About the German Pavilion

On the initiative of the German Industry Association for Optical, Medical and Mechatronical Technologies Inc. (Spectaris), with the support of the Federal Ministry of Economic Affairs and Energy (BMWi) and in cooperation with the Association of the German Trade Fair Industry (AUMA) a German Pavilion will be organized at analytica China 2018 again.
